BL, as he prefers to be addressed, is the co-founder and CEO of MMI Holdings Ltd since 1989 till 2016 and now currently serves as Executive Director and Board Member. MMI Holdings Ltd is a precision engineering technologies company that was listed on the Stock Exchange of Singapore from 1997 to 2007 when it was privatised by Kohlberg Kravis Roberts (KKR) in a SGD1 billion deal.

A successful and highly respected entrepreneur, he was awarded the Best Chief Executive Officer (for companies under S$500 million market capitalisation) at the 2006 Annual Singapore Business Awards, alongside other accolades that include the National University of Singapore Society Distinguished Alumni Award, the Grand Entrepreneur Award and National University of Singapore Centennial Entrepreneurship Awards.

Actively advocating industry growth and innovation outside his corporate responsibilities, BL was a Member of the Governing Board of Singapore-MIT Alliance and was a Director at the International Disk Drive Equipment and Materials Association. He was also previously a board member of the Economic Development Board and Chairman of the Centre for Wireless Communication.

BL received his Bachelor of Engineering (Mechanical) from the National University of Singapore in 1980.
